

Academic Roadmap

Geography Majors (freshmen)

Freshman Year (30 credits)

FIRST SEMESTER (Fall)		SECOND SEMESTER (Spring)
Course Title	Course offering	Course Title	Course offering
GEG 101 World Natural Environments	Every semester	GEG 101 and/or 102 if missed during the fall semester
GEG 102 Human Geography	Every semester	One regional geography course, select from: GEG 300 World Regional Geography; GEG 359 Arctic Geography (NWIF); GEG 360 Geography of Asia (NWIF); GEG 362 Geography of US & Canada (WCIF); GEG 364 Geography of Europe (WCIF)	At least one regional geography course is offered every semester
		1 major concentration/elective course	Varies every semester

Freshmen should be focused on the following: taking CWP 101(fall) and 102 (spring); taking MAT 103 or MAT 114 to fulfill the Mathematics & Quantitative Reasoning IF requirement; CIS 101 recommended; fulfilling the Foreign Language requirement (passing a high school Regents exam will fulfill to the 102-level; some high school foreign language may be equivalent to the 101-level); balancing some courses in the major with 100-level IF courses (e.g., Arts, Humanities, Social Science, and Natural Science)

Sophomore Year (60 credits)

THIRD SEMESTER (Fall)		FOURTH SEMESTER (Spring)
Course Title	Course offering	Course Title	Course offering
If missed last year, one regional geography course, select from: GEG 300 World Regional Geography; GEG 359 Arctic Geography (NWIF); GEG 360 Geography of Asia (NWIF); GEG 362 Geography of US & Canada (WCIF); GEG 364 Geography of Europe (WCIF)	At least one regional geography course is offered every semester	GEG 325 if missed during the fall semester
GEG 325 Maps & Mapmaking Using GIS	Every semester	1 or 2 major concentration/elective courses	Varies every semester
1 or 2 major concentration/elective courses	Varies every semester

Junior Year (90 credits)

FIFTH SEMESTER (Fall)		SIXTH SEMESTER (Spring)
Course Title	Course offering	Course Title	Course offering
1 or 2 major concentration/elective courses	Varies every semester	GEG 390 Quantitative Methods in Geography & Planning (Writing Infused, Critical Thinking, Information Management)	Spring only
		1 or 2 major concentration/elective courses	Varies every semester

Senior Year (120 credits)

SEVENTH SEMESTER (Fall)		EIGHTH SEMESTER (Spring)
Course Title	Course offering	Course Title	Course offering
GEG 396 Research Methods (Writing Infused, Critical Thinking, Information Management)	Fall only	1 or 2 major concentration/elective courses	Varies every semester
1 or 2 major concentration/elective courses	Varies every semester

Academic Roadmap

Geography Majors (transfers)

Junior Year (90 credits)

FIRST SEMESTER (Fall)		SECOND SEMESTER (Spring)
Course Title	Course offering	Course Title	Course offering
GEG 101 World Natural Environments	Every semester	Any geography course(s) missed during the fall semester, including GEG 101, 102, 325, and/or a regional geography course
GEG 102 Human Geography	Every semester
GEG 325 Maps & Mapmaking Using GIS	Every semester
One regional geography course, select from: GEG 300 World Regional Geography; GEG 359 Arctic Geography (NWIF); GEG 360 Geography of Asia (NWIF); GEG 362 Geography of US & Canada (WCIF); GEG 364 Geography of Europe (WCIF)	At least one regional geography course is offered every semester	GEG 390 Quantitative Methods in Geography & Planning (Writing Infused, Critical Thinking, Information Management)	Spring only
1 major concentration/elective course	Varies every semester	2 major concentration/elective courses	Varies every semester

Senior Year (120 credits)

THIRD SEMESTER (Fall)		FOURTH SEMESTER (Spring)
Course Title	Course offering	Course Title	Course offering
GEG 396 Research Methods (Writing Infused, Critical Thinking, Information Management)	Fall only	1-2 major concentration/elective courses	Varies every semester
2-3 major concentration/elective courses	Varies every semester		